June 28 Open House Meeting to Build Membership

For the first time in eight years, Saturday Morning Live will not be a distinguished club, because of low membership. We lost half our members in the last dues cycle. Now, there are only 15 of us and we are in rebuilding mode.

We usually have an open house toward the end of the Toastmasters year anyway, but this year it is keenly important that our Open House be a big success. So, we are pulling out all the stops. We have committed $50 from the club treasury for educational materials for a raffle. We are planning a sumptuous potluck lunch. We will have Justin Tietjen, our district contest competitor and stand-up comedian, give a presentation on how Toastmasters has benefitted him. We will have a special get-to know-you game in which guests and members alike will participate.

How can you help? First, you can bring guests to see what we do and celebrate with us. Second, you can bring a dish to share at our potluck. Third, you can contribute a gift to our raffle. Most important, you can suit up and show up, because the more people we have there, the more fun we all can have!

2025-26 Club Officers Elected

It may seem like "musical chairs" with our previous officers swapping roles, and it took us a while to sort things out, but we have chosen our officers for 2025-26:

- President Steve Goldstein
- VP Education Charlotte Bentley
- VP Membership Jane Dow
- VP Public Relations –Zee Zolnay
- Treasurer Kitty Vu
- Secretary Norma Schwartz
- Sergeant at Arms Vernon McBride

The officers are all strongly encouraged to attend the Early Bird Training offered online by District 115 on June 7 (see sidebar on left for details). Can't make it? Don't worry. There are additional training opportunities to come.

Come What May, We Shall Carry On!

Our club was well represented at the District 115 Conference on May 2–3. Justin Tietjen carried our gonfalon in the banner parade and placed third in the International Speech Contest. Also attending in person were Steve Goldstein and his wife Ivy, and Zee Zolnay.

May 10 was an exercise in minimalist toastmastering, with only four members and one guest attending. Nevertheless, the meeting was successful. We had two fine speeches from Steve and Zee, and the guest, Barbara Daley, signed up to join!

Our May 24 meeting featured three project speeches. Two of these, presented by Norma Schwartz and Jane Dow, focused on mentoring. We also had some great jokes from Kosol Lim and a round-robin evaluation session moderated by General Evaluator Steve Goldstein.

Date	Best Table Topic	Best Speaker	Best Evaluator
May 10	No Award Given
May 24	Justin Tietjen	Norma Schwartz	No Award Given

Welcome to Barbara Daley, our newest member!
